

Privacy Policies

My Lucy Corp

Introduction

LUCY is committed to protecting the information we process by doing our best to ensure that the information is used only to support students and education. We are guided in this mission by our foundational Privacy Principles:

- Transparency: We work to ensure transparent data processing in our business.
- Accountability: We demonstrate our commitment to privacy in concrete and tangible ways.
- Integrity: We strive to ensure that the data entrusted to us is complete, consistent, and accurate.
- Security: We implement and maintain appropriate technical, administrative, and organizational measures to protect data in accordance with regulatory requirements.
- Confidentiality: We establish and maintain policies, procedures, and practices that limit access to data and protect against unlawful or unintentional access or disclosure.

As part of our commitment to protecting the privacy of students, educators, and institutions, we adhere to industry best practices and continually work towards improving our privacy and security standards.

We invite you to learn more about the data practices on our platforms that enable lifelong learning.

Information We Collect

Personal information you provide: We collect Personal Information if you create an account to use our Services or communicate with us as follows:

- Personal Information: During account creation and onboarding, we collect personal details such as student's first name, last name, Penn email address, school, major, minor, and advisor's name (collectively, "Account Information").
- Usage Data: User Content: When you use our Services, we collect Personal Information that is included in the input or feedback that you provide to our Services ("Content").

- Communication Information: Information you provide when communicating with us, such as inquiries, support requests, and feedback (“Communication Information”).

Personal information we receive automatically from your use of the Services: When you visit, use, or interact with the Services, we receive the following information about your visit, use, or interactions (“Technical Information”):

- Log Data: Information that your browser or device automatically sends when you use our Services. Log data includes your Internet Protocol address, browser type and settings, the date and time of your request, and how you interact with our Services.
- Usage Data: We may automatically collect information about your use of the Services, such as the types of content that you view or engage with, the features you use and the actions you take, as well as your time zone, country, the dates and times of access, user agent and version, type of computer or mobile device, and your computer connection.
- Device Information: Includes name of the device, operating system, device identifiers, and browser you are using. Information collected may depend on the type of device you use and its settings.

How We Use Your Information

As a 'school official' under the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA), Lucy complies with all applicable requirements regarding the use and protection of educational records. We handle student information under the same legal standards as educational institutions, ensuring that data is accessed and used strictly for educational purposes in support of academic success. Lucy only accesses and shares student data with authorized individuals or entities as permitted by FERPA and by our partner institutions. Additionally, we follow all school policies and requirements on data access and confidentiality to uphold student rights and privacy.

How we use your information depends on our relationship with you. We primarily provide our product to Academic Institutions institutions that use Lucy to better navigate the complexity of university information, and improve student succes.

If you are an end user of an Academic Institution or company that uses Lucy, it means that your institution determines how your personal information is used. This means that your organization’s privacy notice governs the use of your personal information. This Notice is intended to provide transparency related to Lucy’s privacy practices only.

We have provided the following summary to help you understand what we do with the information we process through Lucy and the relationship between our users and product.

- Service Provision: To provide, maintain, and enhance Lucy's features.
- Personalization: To personalize your learning experience and provide tailored responses.
- Communication: To communicate with you, including responding to your inquiries and feedback.
- Legal Compliance: To comply with legal obligations and ensure the security of our services.
- Improvement and Analytics: To analyze usage trends and improve our products, ensuring a better experience for users.

Sharing and Disclosure of Information

Now we will review how we share or disclose information, including personal information. Please note that we share information, and permit you to share information, only as described in this Privacy Notice. We do not sell or rent personal information to third parties.

- Third-Party Service Providers: We may share your personal information with authorized third-party service providers for the sole purpose of providing you with our Products. We use trusted third-party service providers, AWS, Firebase, OpenAI, Perplexity to help provide and improve our services. OpenAI and Perplexity processes data to generate responses, retaining information only temporarily. AWS and Firebase securely stores user data. We do not permit our third-party service providers to use personal information we share with them for their own advertising or marketing purposes, or for any other purpose other than in connection with the services they provide to Lucy. Additionally, we do not sell or rent your personal information to third parties.
- Legal Compliance: We may share your data to comply with legal obligations, regulatory requirements, or respond to lawful requests from authorities.
- Affiliates: We may share information with our affiliates and subsidiaries for the purposes described in this Privacy Policy.

User Rights

We provide you with several ways to control your information.

- Parents and Academic Institutions. Parents and educators may review information collected from children, request deletion of this information, or request no further collection or use of this information by contacting us at thomas.perez@my-lucy.com.
- Account Information. You may change some of your personal information by editing your Lucy profile. You may also request that we modify or delete your information by emailing us at thomas.perez@my-lucy.com or submitting a help desk ticket through Lucy. We will respond to your request, when permitted by law and subject to exceptions, within 30 days.

If you require access to personal information not otherwise available through any of the mechanisms described above, please contact us at thomas.perez@my-lucy.com or submitting a help desk ticket through our Products.

Children's Privacy

Lucy is not intended for use by children under the age of 13. If you believe a child under 13 has provided us with personal information, please contact us immediately at thomas.perez@my-lucy.com. We will investigate any notification and if appropriate, delete the Personal Information from our systems. If you are 13 or older, but under 18, you must have permission from your parent or guardian to use our Services.

Links to other websites

Third-Party Websites. Our Products may contain links to third-party websites or services that allow you to leave our Products and go to another website which will always be a upenn.edu website. Your information, including personal information, may be collected by upenn. We have no control over, do not review, and cannot be responsible for these outside websites or their content.

Please be aware that the terms of this Privacy Notice do not apply to these outside websites or content, or to any collection of data after you click on links to such outside websites. The links to third-party websites or locations are for your convenience and do not signify our endorsement of such third parties or their products, content, or websites.

Security and retention

Lucy takes reasonable steps to help protect your personal information in an effort to prevent unauthorized access, use, or disclosure. We implement commercially reasonable technical, administrative, and organizational measures to protect Personal Information both online and offline from loss, misuse, and unauthorized access, disclosure, alteration, or destruction. However, no Internet or email transmission is ever fully secure or error free. In particular, email sent to or from us may not be secure. Therefore, you should take special care in deciding what information you send to us via the Service or email. In addition, we are not responsible for circumvention of any privacy settings or security measures contained on the Service, or third-party websites.

We'll retain your Personal Information for only as long as we need in order to provide our Service to you, or for other legitimate business purposes such as resolving disputes, safety and security reasons, or complying with our legal obligations. How long we retain Personal Information will depend on a number of factors, such as the amount, nature, and sensitivity of the information, the potential risk of harm from unauthorized use or disclosure, our purpose for processing the information, and any legal requirements.

Changes to This Privacy Policy

This Privacy Policy is fixed for the duration of Penn's use of Lucy's services and will not change without prior written agreement from Penn. For Penn users, the policy will remain consistent to ensure ongoing compliance and transparency.
